

Building Faculty Survey - Evaluation

Thank you so much for agreeing to help our study gather information-- we know you are busy, and we appreciate your time-- especially at the end of a busy school year!

Now that you have completed the Open Court ELA curriculum professional development training and implementation period, please answer the questions below to help us evaluate the overall effectiveness of the program and its impact on your teaching practice.

This survey is not collecting names or email addresses, and your individual responses will be kept confidential. It is our intent only to use the information collected from this survey in the aggregate to inform our study findings and complete the information systems design project evaluation.
